SULLY PROPOSES PLAN FOR BOOST OF COTTON

Former "Cotton King" Favors a Chain of Warehouses to Carry Out His Project.

ATLANTA, April 3.—"When the farmers of the South and the business men of the South say the word, funds will be immediately available in sufficient volume forever to place the great industry of cotton production upon a stable foundation, free from the chance fluctuations of the market, relieved of the attacks of manipulators and leaving the gigantic crop monopoly of this section to respond, unembarrassed and unrestricted, to the legitimate laws of supply and demand. The result should mean to the South an annual cash saving ranging from $150,000,000 to $250,000,000."

In these plain terms Daniel J. Sully, the man who drove cotton to its highest market price since the Civil War, yesterday outlined the purpose of his visit to Atlanta and the South.

Continuing, Mr. Sully said his plan contemplates "the creation of an impregnable business system, which shall do away with the annual necessity of the farmer sacrificing millions of bales of cotton for pressing debt, congesting the market, hammering down prices, upsetting the reign of supply and demand and losing to this section the tremendous sums that are its due in return for the one crop indispensable to the needs of civilization."

Ten Millions Available.

"I do not ask one penny from the Southern people. I do not ask the pledging of one bale of cotton until I have given ample good faith of sufficient financial backing, from sources that are unquestionable, to carry every detail of the plan into effect and to safeguard the interest of every farmer in the South from the man who raises one bale to the man who raises a thousand bales.

"A minimum fund of $10,000,000 subscribed by the most conservative financiers of the United States is available to be invested in such ironclad securities as insure the ability and responsibility of the plans promoted to redeem their promises and obligations to the last detail.

"The people of the South will be given the first opportunity to invest in this project, if upon rigid investigation it commends itself to their judgment.

Chain of Warehouses.

"The backbone of the plan is a chain of bonded warehouses throughout the South sufficient in number and capacity to house one third of the crop and that one-third, as has been demonstrated, will be the balance of power, which will render market congestion impossible and insure the disposal of the crop in strict conformity with the laws of supply and demand."

In borrowing money on his warehouse certificates, Mr. Sully said the farmer does not surrender the equity in his cotton. "It is his to sell whenever he pleases, or to hold as long as he pleases, with the plain business exception that the certificate he may have used as collateral for the loan is a prior lien upon the bale, which must be satisfied out of the sale of the bale when that culmination is reached."

The company would be paid a nominal fee for each bale of cotton handled and in this way, Mr. Sully figures a fair profit will be realized on the investment.

LIFE INSURANCE MEN LOSE THEIR POSITIONS

LAW PROHIBITS BUSINESS OF OVER $150,000,000 A YEAR.

Some of the Larger Companies Restricted by This Law from Seeking New Business.

NEW YORK, April 3.—As a result of the limitation placed upon new business of life insurance companies by the insurance law, the New York Life Insurance Company it was announced yesterday will on May 31 discharge 1,000 of its agents in various parts of the country. This dismissal order which will affect agents who devote only part of their time to the company was rendered necessary by the decision rendered yesterday by Supreme Court Justice O'Gorman, upholding the constitutionality of that section of the insurance law which limits new business to be written by any company in any calendar year to $150,000,000. Justice O'Gorman's decision forbade the company from issuing a $25,000 policy on the ground that its limit for new business for the year had been reached and could not be exceeded.

Edward R. Perkins, second vice-president of the New York Life Insurance Company, said that in the last two years more than 5,000 life insurance agents have lost their positions. Another 1,000 would have to go by May 31, thus bringing a force which once numbered 8,000 down to 2,000.

Savannah Market Quiet in Sea Islands Last Week

SAVANNAH, Ga., April 3.—Early in the week the market was quiet with some holding cotton being offered and scarcely any demand. Prices consequently eased off a little, early sales being at inside figures to a shade under.

Latterly the demand improved, with rather reduced offerings, and the market steadied up to about the former bases, and closed steady. This late demand was for all grades from extra fine to extra fancy, inclusive, and appeared to have been pretty well satisfied at the close.

Sales for the week were 724 bales.

The following prices were based on factors' quotations and are revised weekly on Fridays:

Fancy Floridas	19	@20 1/4
Fancy Georgias	19	@20

WALDO IS TO HAVE NEW RURAL ROUTE

TO COVER TERRITORY ADJACENT TO MONTEOCHA AND GRAHAM.

Family Reunion at Orange Heights. Town Taxes Being Collected. Personal Notes of Interest.

WALDO, April 3.—Arrangements are about completed for the establishment of a rural free delivery route of a twenty-mile circuit to the northward and westward of Waldo, which will do away with the small postoffices of Graham and Montecocha. It will pay seventy-five dollars per month and several applicants want it.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvard are staying awhile with the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Andrew Jolly.

A family reunion and dinner was held a few days ago at the Jolly home- stead near Orange Heights in honor of the Methodist patriarch, Absolom Jolly, on the eighty-fifth anniversary of his birth. Dr. James Jolly of Oklahoma, and his family, Dr. Andrew and Mr. Frank Jolly of Waldo and also other families of the connection were in attendance as well as other invited guests. Rev. T. L. Z. Barr presided as minister of the occasion, presenting a fine family Bible in well-chosen remarks.

Town Tax Collector L. P. Miller has notices up warning tax-payers of the near approach of the limit of time to pay up the taxes due for 1908. The Seaboard Air Line has recently paid to the amount of $68. The administration has been greatly hampered by the loss of its funds by the failure of the Parrish bank here some time ago.

The Woman's Home Mission Society makes a good showing in its annual report that $150.59 has been raised for all purposes and that there is a balance in the treasury of $10.67.

A. Turner and family have moved to Savannah. He was a partner with his son, E. A. Turner, in the mercantile business, who continues at the old stand.

J. B. Mattair and wife of Albany, Ga., were here a few days ago. They were former residents and still have property here. They visited Mrs. Prewitt and family.

Rev. Chas. B. Hedrick, rector, held two services at the Episcopal church Sunday.

Horace Ross, one of the conductors on the S. A. L., is suffering from an attack of fever.

An oyster roast was enjoyed by a number of young people in the open near The News office Wednesday night.

Finlayson & Co. have just got in two very large and beautiful show cases for the better display of their new spring goods.

Mrs. Sebastian of Jacksonville and Miss Cobb Johnson of Atlanta are visiting Mr. and Mrs. McManus at Lake View.

Mrs. T. B. Ellis of Gainesville returned after a visit to Mrs. Marks and family.

ANDREWS—TOWNSEND.

Marriage of Popular Young Couple in South Florida Town.

WAUCHULA, Fla., April 3.—A quiet but pretty wedding ceremony was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Townsend, Wauchula, Fla., on Wednesday at 4 p. m. March 31, 1909, when their oldest daughter, MaBell Hartley, and Mr. Junius Marvin Andrews of Winter Haven were wed. The beautiful ring ceremony of the Methodist Church was performed by Rev. W. B. Tresca, pastor of Methodist church of Wauchula, in the presence of the family and only a few relatives of the bride.

The bride looked very pretty in a dainty dress of white silk mull, with lace and ribbon trimming, white slippers and gloves with bouquet of orange blossoms. The groom was looking his

PAYNE BILL INCREASES EXPENSES OF FARMER

If Bill Becomes a Law Harvester Trust Will Profit to the Extent of Millions.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—How does the farmer fare in the Payne tariff bill?

Several Congressmen have answered this question on the floor of the House within the last few days. Each one revealed a new "joker." If the bill becomes a law the International Harvester Company, which, next to the United States Steel Corporation, is the most powerful combine in the country, will profit to the extent of millions, which will flow directly into its coffers from the pockets of the prosperous American farmer.

"We have taken care of the farmer," declared Chairman Payne of the Ways and Means Committee, just after his tariff bill was reported. "The duty on agricultural implements has been materially reduced."

Here is how: The Payne bill provides in one place that the duty on plows, tooth and disc harrows, harvesters, reapers, agricultural drills and planters, thrashing machines, and cotton gins, shall be 15 per cent ad valorem. But the bill does not stop there. Immediately following is the usual "Provided, however, that any of the foregoing, when imported from any country, dependency, province, or colony which imposes no tax or duty on like articles imported from the United States, shall be imported free of duty."

This is a seeming reduction of 5 per cent ad valorem, as the present law provides a duty of 20 per cent ad valorem, but it is only a seeming reduction, for later on the bill provides for a duty of 25 per cent ad valorem. The duty on agricultural implements is increased five per cent instead of decreased. The actual joker is on page 27 of the Payne bill, and reads as follows: "Upon each article enumerated in paragraph 468 of Schedule N, 25 per centum ad valorem."

Manufacturers of agricultural implements are selling their goods abroad, after paying transportation charges and tariff duties, imposed by other countries, from 15 to 20 per cent cheaper than they sell the same grades of implements to American farmers. This is under the 20 per cent ad valorem duty. Under the 25 per cent ad valorem duty they will be able to extort a much higher price as the high duty payments of the few foreign independent manufacturers that the International Harvester Company permits to remain in business.

"The farmers are making more than anybody else," say the lobbyists for the implement manufacturers. They are able to stand a good, stiff tax on agricultural implements."

The farmers reply by admitting their finances are in a healthy condition but that is an insufficient reason why the Republican party should permit them to be unreasonably taxed by the agricultural trust.

The value of farm property in the United States in 1900, the census year, was $20,514,001,538; the value of farm animals, $2,228,123,134; total $22,742,125,972. The total capital invested in manufacturing industries in 1900 was $9,817,434,799. On the farmer's investment there was a return in money of 16.5-10 per cent, while on the manufacturers' investment there was a return of 14.15-10 per cent.

"The Payne bill provides a 25 per cent ad valorem duty on agricultural implements," said Representative James Hay of Virginia, in protesting against provisions of the measure which discriminate against the farmer. "Every country which manufactures agricultural implements has a duty on agricultural implements, and thus these countries would be compelled to pay a duty of 25 per cent ad valorem. The trust is therefore protected as never before from its real rivals in trade and continues in its impregnable position and in its ability to impose any price it pleases for its wares upon the farmers of this country. What is the purpose of the framers of this bill if it is not to deceive the farmers? Why provide for a seeming reduction? Why not frankly say that the duty on these articles shall be 25 per cent ad valorem, instead of hiding the fact in the mazes of this bill, so full of conflicting provisions and so confusing that when it first appeared the very elect were deceived as to its real import? The farmers of this country are intelligent, they are alive to their interest, and they will resent in no uncertain tones this plain effort to mislead and deceive them."

very best and seemed very happy.

The many friends of the bride in Alachua county remember her for her happy nature, and will no doubt be pleased to know of her marriage. She was one of the teachers in that county and has but recently moved with her father's family from near Hawthorn, where they are well known, to Wauchula.

The groom is an enterprising young man, now of Winter Haven, but formerly of Ashborough, N. C. He is engaged in the orange business at Winter Haven.

After supper the bride donned a blue traveling suit and the happy young couple left on the 6:32 train for Lakeland, from there to Winter Haven next day, where they will be at home to their friends.

They received some very nice gifts. Their many friends wish for them a happy and prosperous life.

No Mob Violence Feared For Mick Morris Now

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 3.—Mainly as the result of the proclamation issued by Governor Gilchrist Wednesday all talk of mob violence toward Mick Morris, colored, charged with the murder of Sheriff W. M. Langston of Leon county on March 19, has died out.

Sheriff Houston stated yesterday that he feels certain that he can now control the situation easily. The negro will be brought to Tallahassee

Sunday. By order of the Governor, Judge B. H. Palmer of the Third district will convene a special term of the circuit court Monday for the prompt trial of the case. The sheriff doesn't believe that any mob violence will be offered the negro when he is brought here and lodged in jail pending his trial. Governor Gilchrist in his proclamation strongly urged all law-abiding citizens to stand by the sheriff in the preservation of law and order.

PAYNE BILL WILL BE GOOD FOR DEMOCRATS

House of Representatives Will Have Democratic Majority in 1911 If History Repeats Itself.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Politicians here in the National Capital who make it a practice to keep one ear close to the ground for rumblings giving an indication of changes in public sentiment are fast reaching the conviction that if the Payne bill is passed in anything like its present form it will mean disaster to the Republican party.

The McKinley bill, far less oppressive of the poor than the measure now before Congress, defeated the Republicans overwhelmingly in 1890. Speaker Reed, discussing that defeat, said that the commercial agents who went through the country explaining to the small merchants why the price of goods had advanced, and the women who resented increases in prices, were factors in determining that defeat.

There is a growing fear among Republicans that the Payne bill may have a similar effect. The storm of public resentment has already begun to gather. Letters are pouring in upon the members of both houses of Congress. The Senate is getting them from women's clubs and suffragettes. Complaint is coming from every section of the country, and from all classes of the people. It comes from the East and from the West; the North and the South; from the people who wear woollens, and those who drink coffee; from women who wear gloves and from those who drink tea. The trend of the complaint is that the Payne bill increases instead of decreases the duties upon articles of general use.

The letters indicate that the sentiment of the average American toward tariff as a protection measure has undergone a decisive reversal since the days of the Dingley act. At that time the people were led to place more or less confidence in the theory that if capital engaged in production were given big benefits by the tariff it would fairly divide up with labor; labor would prosper, and everyone would have money enough to pay the high prices.

It having been proven to the consumers' satisfaction that high duties mean high prices without a corresponding advance in wages the people are writing here to let it be known what they want is revision downward. This the Payne bill does not give them.

The rates provided for in the Payne bill, as it stands, average 1.56 per cent higher than the Dingley rates. When the maximum and minimum arrangement begins operation, according to Minority Leader Champ Clark, they will average 21.56 higher than Dingley bill schedules.

In repeated instances the Payne bill openly discriminates against articles (particularly stockings, gloves, hats, and woollens) of the class purchased by women and children of little means, in favor of the more expensive articles used by the rich.

An illustration is found in the duties imposed upon hosiery and knit cotton goods. Women's and children's hose, of the grade valued at $1 per dozen, which is very cheap, are increased in the bill from 68 per cent to 90 per cent. The expensive grades of hosiery are left as in the Dingley bill, at 65 per cent.

Women's and children's gloves show the same large advances in taxation upon the cheaper grades. The increase in duty upon the cheapest grade is from 58 per cent to 135 per cent, which means that the poor will have to pay 75 cents more on every dollar's worth of gloves purchased. The increase in taxation upon the costly gloves, or the kind purchased by the wealthy, is from 43 to 90 per cent, which means that the rich will have to pay but 47 cents more on every dollar's worth of gloves purchased. Contrast the figures—75 per cent advance on the gloves of the poor, who are least able to stand it, and 47 per cent advance on the gloves of the rich, to whom increased living expenses have little interest.

In the matter of hats, the duty upon those which are valued at $2.68 per dozen—the cheap hat of the working girl and the woman of limited means—is placed at 75 per cent. Hats valued at $25 per dozen are made dutiable at 48 per cent.

The cheaper grades of blankets—the kind used by the poor—are dutiable at 105 per cent, which means that on every dollar's worth of blankets shipped in a tax of $1.05 is added for the consumer to pay. Or, another way of looking at it is that the Payne bill will force the poor to pay $2.05 for every $1 worth of blankets used. The duty on the expensive grades of blankets is fixed at 68 per cent.

Fancy cotton used by the poorer classes are dutiable at 50 per cent. Plain cotton goods and all woollens of the lower grades show an average above 50 per cent.

Tea is to be more costly. The maximum plan will mean a duty on coffee estimated from 7-8 to 4 cents a pound. There is to be no reduction in the price of sugar, oil, nor in any of the other articles which enter so largely into the daily living expenses of the wage-earners of the United States.

That is why the McKinley bill and its effect upon the following election is being recalled by many Republicans. Before the McKinley bill was passed the Republican party was warned just as it is being warned now. "Pass this bill," wrote James G. Blaine, to Representative McKinley, then chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, "and in 1892 there will not be a man in all the party so beggared as to accept your nomination for the Presidency. Such movements as this for protection will protect the Republican party into speedy retirement."

The McKinley bill was passed in the spring of 1890. In the Congressional elections which followed in the fall Blaine's prophecy was fulfilled. The Republican majority in the House was swept away. When Congress met in 1891 the Democratic representatives numbered 235, and the Republicans 88, while in the Senate the Republican majority was reduced from 14 to 6.

ANOTHER ARREST IN COUNTERFEITING CASE

U. S. DEPUTY DAWKINS RETURNS WITH PRISONER.

Alleged That He Is Another Member of the Gang Who Operated Near Newberry.

From Saturday's Daily Sun:

Mason Warren, a middle-aged white man, is another new arrest in the counterfeiting case from Newberry and U. S. Deputy B. F. Dawkins arrived Friday with the man in charge.

Deputy Dawkins had been absent for the past two days summoning witnesses and looking for the man that he finally captured and brought here upon this case, which will be given a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Cushman next Tuesday.

Two brothers, J. J. and Simeon Knighton, were arrested some time ago, Warren making the third of what is alleged to be a gang of six or more counterfeiters who worked the game successfully in the Newberry section for some time before they were finally detected and a stop put to the practice.

Seventeen witnesses have been summoned in the case and it will doubtless bring a large crowd here to attend the hearing.

Several of the merchants in the West End section were caught by the money and it is alleged that this crowd made the "coin" in 10 and 25 cent pieces, besides a number of half-dollars have been discovered. The smaller denominations were said to be excellent specimens and in a rush it would be hard for anyone to detect them from the genuine.

Best Treatment for Colds.

"Most ordinary colds will yield to the simplest treatment," says The Chicago Tribune, "moderate laxatives, hot foot baths, a free perspiration and an avoidance of exposure to cold and wet after treatment." While this treatment is simple, it requires considerable trouble, and the one adopting it must remain in doors for a day or two, or a fresh cold is almost sure to be contracted, and in many instances pneumonia follows. Is it not better to pin your faith to an old reliable preparation like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, that is famous for its cures of colds and can always be depended upon? For sale by all druggists.

Making Rapid Progress.

From Friday's Daily Sun:

The contractors for the excavations on the Government lot are progressing very rapidly on the contract and expect to have the greater part of the work completed this week. They are now down to a depth of about five feet all over the entire lot, but considerable shaping will have to be done to the "hole" before it will be ready for the contractors to commence their operations.

Moved to Country.

Tax Assessor Colson and his estimable family have removed from East Gainesville to their country home on Newnan's Lake, where they will hereafter reside. Mr. Colson says that he has always enjoyed country life, and as it is only a drive of a few minutes from his home to the city, he can make the trip every day and be at home at night to enjoy the country air and pleasures of a farm.

People past middle life usually have some kidney or bladder disorder that saps the vitality, which is naturally lower in old age. Foley's Kidney Remedy corrects urinary troubles, stimulates the kidneys, and restores strength and vigor. It cures uric acid troubles by strengthening the kidneys so they will strain out the uric acid that settles in the muscles and joints causing rheumatism. J. W. McCollum & Co.

DORSEY DIES FROM EFFECTS OF WOUNDS

LINGERED FOR TWO DAYS AFTER DEED WAS COMMITTED.

At Times Man Would Rave As if Someone Were After Him to Do Him Harm.

From Friday's Daily Sun.

Postmaster Dorsey of McIntosh, who shot himself and cut his throat in an endeavor to end his life on account of a supposed shortage of $50 in his accounts, died on Wednesday and was buried from his home yesterday.

The man was evidently demented at times, for during certain periods he would be alarmed and frightened, at the same time claiming that he was being attacked for the purpose of robbery. He would also state at times that two men on white horses had shot him and cut his throat, but the note that he left to his wife, and which was made public, destroyed any theory save that of suicide.

The way the matter was summed up by several of the old gentleman's friends was that he had gotten his affairs tangled, and brooded over them to such an extent that he had become temporarily unbalanced, which accounts for his rash act.

The affairs will be adjusted satisfactorily and everything made all right for the wife, and she will probably be placed in charge of the post-office, provided she cares to take charge of it.

J. J. FINLEY CHAPTER.

An interesting meeting of the J. J. Finley Chapter, U. D. C., was held Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Thornton Stringfellow. In spite of the threatening aspect of the weather there was quite a large number present. Credentials were presented from four new members.

After the transaction of the routine business the historical program was taken up.

Delegates to the State convention to be held in St. Augustine, May 5, were elected as follows: Mrs. J. L. Kelley, Mrs. J. W. Tench, Mrs. G. K. Broome and Mrs. J. L. Medlin; alternates, Mrs. J. W. Patton, Mrs. A. R. Harper, Mrs. F. P. Henderson and Miss Gertrude Moore.

The Chapter enjoyed a social hour at the close of the meeting, during which time delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

HIDDEN DANGERS

Nature Gives Timely Warning That No Gainesville Citizen Can Afford to Ignore.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red, ill-smelling urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the approach of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Here is proof in the statement of a nearby resident:

Mrs. Elizabeth Moore, Madison avenue, Starke, Fla., says: "For some time I suffered from dull, nagging backaches and distressing pains through my loins. I could not rest well and arose in the morning feeling tired and worn out. My kidneys were sluggish and the secretions very unnatural. I at length procured Doan's Kidney Pills and they gave me the desired relief promptly. I have since been free from backaches and pains through my loins and my kidneys are normal. I am feeling better generally and give Doan's Kidney Pills the credit."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

THE NEWS FROM ARCHER.

Death of Popular Young Man—Cabbage Bringing Good Prices.

ARCHER, Fla., April 2.—The many friends of Mr. Percy Dill will be grieved to hear of his death, which occurred Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of his aunt, Miss Sallie Ramsey, with whom he had lived for the last twenty years, his mother dying when he was an infant. He was a kind, good boy, a great comfort to his aunt, and will be sadly missed. Although he had been sick for several months his death came as a surprise. Everything that faithful physicians and loving hands could do was done but when God calls no hand can stay. He had been a valued employee of the Maddox Foundry Co. for two years. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Newman at the Presbyterian church at 1 o'clock, then his body was taken to Arredondo, where the Woodmen of the World buried him with their services, all of the Woodmen from here accompanying the remains, showing their esteem for him. His grave was more than covered by beautiful flowers. Besides his aunt, he leaves one sister, Mrs. Joe McKinney of Wacahoota, one brother, Mr. Charly Dill of Wacahoota, and two uncles, Messrs. Perry and Marion Ramsey.

Mr. and Mrs. John King are the proud parents of a baby girl. Miss Ella Jones of Gainesville is visiting her sister, Mrs. Monroe Venable.

Objects to Strong Medicines.

Many people object to taking the strong medicines usually prescribed by physicians for rheumatism. There is no need of internal treatment in any case of muscular or chronic rheumatism, and more than nine out of every ten cases of the disease are of one or the other of these varieties. When there is no fever and little (if any) swelling, you may know that it is only necessary to apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely to get quick relief. Try it. For sale by all druggists.

BOUNDARY STREET IS NOW BEING PAVED

WORK OF GRADING WAS FINISHED ON THURSDAY AT NOON.

Will Commence Putting on the Paving Material Today—Trees Are Being Removed.

From Friday's Daily Sun.

The work of paving East Boundary street, from East Main to Pleasant will be commenced this morning and C. M. Dell, superintendent of the street department, says he hopes to complete the work within about two weeks.

For several days a force of men have been engaged in grading the thoroughfare and are now removing the trees and other obstructions from along the line of sidewalk, which makes an improved appearance since it has been opened up.

A cement gutter will be placed along the thoroughfare on both the north and south sides and the material to be used is gravel, clay and sand, the road roller being used to get the pressure on the material to make it compact.

When finished this street will afford a great convenience to all parties coming from that section of the city, and will prove especially advantageous to the people of the North Gainesville section.

Pedestrians, bicyclists and vehicles can now traverse this route at all seasons and not be compelled to go through mud and water, as has been the condition on Pleasant street.

The funeral services were held in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Riverside, at noon on Friday, and Mrs. C. B. Rogers and James Coachman accompanied the body of their father to Bronson, where it was interred early Saturday morning in the old cemetery, by the side of his wife.—Times-Democrat.

The deceased was a former resident of this city and was well-known by many of the citizens here.

S.S.S. OLDEST AND BEST BLOOD PURIFIER

We have never claimed that S. S. S. was a medicine to work wonders, nor one that would cure every physical ailment or disorder. More than forty years ago it was placed on the market and recommended as a blood purifier, and today, after a long and successful career, and when its use has become almost universal, only the same honest claim is made for it—that it is a cure for those diseases and disorders arising from an impure or polluted blood. Time makes no mistakes, and the very best recommendation of S. S. S. is the fact that it has stood a long test and is now more generally used, and has the confidence of a greater number of people than any other blood medicine.

The blood is the most vital force of life; every organ, nerve, muscle, tissue and sinew of the body is dependent on it for nourishment and strength, and as it circulates through the system, pure and rich, it furnishes to these different members the healthful properties needed to preserve them and enable them to perform their various duties. So long as the blood remains free from infection we are apt to escape disease, but any impurity, humor or poison acts injuriously on the system and affects the general health.

Pustular eruptions, pimples, rashes, and the various skin affections, show that the blood is in a feverish condition as a result of some humor, or the presence of an irritating, fiery acid. Rheumatism comes from an excess of uric acid in the circulation, while Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Scrofula and Contagious Blood Poison, are all deep-seated blood disorders that will continue to grow worse as long as the cause remains. Bad blood may come from various causes, such as a sluggish condition of the system, imperfect bowel and kidney action, indigestion, etc., or the trouble may be inherited; but whatever the cause the blood must be purified before the body can be healthy.

S. S. S. is a natural blood purifier and tonic. It is made entirely of the harmless juices and extracts of roots, herbs and barks of recognized curative ability, and being free from all harmful minerals is an absolutely safe medicine for young or old. S. S. S. goes down into the circulation and removes any and every trace of impurity, humor or poison. It freshens and enriches the blood and cures promptly and permanently Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Scrofula, Skin Diseases, Contagious Blood Poison, and all other blood disorders. S. S. S. is the most reliable and at the same time a most pleasant acting medicine for those whose blood has become weak and who are suffering with Anemia, Malaria or some other debilitating sickness.

A blood purifier is especially needed in the Spring to cleanse the circulation of the impurities which have accumulated during the shut-in life of Winter, and S. S. S. is the most reliable and certain of good results. Book on the blood and medical advice free. S. S. S. is for sale at all drug stores. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

Having used S. S. S. extensively I can testify to its merits as a blood purifier and tonic. It enriches, purifies and cleanses the blood of all impurities, and at the same time is a wonderful invigorator, tonic and system builder. It is also a fine remedy for Rheumatism. It is master of this very painful disease, and as a tonic to give appetite, strength to the nerves and build up the system it has no equal. It is a very fine medicine indeed, and I have every confidence in it. MRS. F. L. BAILEY. 709 Linden St., Clearfield, Pa.

The twelfth annual report of the Florida Railroad Commission, for the year ending March 1, 1909, has been issued. The total expenses of the commission for the year ending Dec. 31, 1908, is given as $27,965.77.

The bulletins issued by the Florida Agricultural Experiment Station contain practical information of inestimable value to the farmer, fruit grower or cattleman. There are a great many people who do not know it, but more harm is done to the health of sick people by a stream of callers than by the failure of the telephone to work when the doctor is wanted, wisely remarks The Tampa Times. It should be the rule to exclude from the sick room every person whose presence and services are not actually required by the case.

An old writer has said that "it is worth a thousand pounds a year to have the habit of looking upon the bright side of things." If a money estimate is to be put upon optimism that statement well expresses its value. But in truth there is an enjoyment, a hopeful courage, a peaceful contentment, and a host of other advantages in looking upon the bright side that can never find their equivalent in money.

VANCE AND THE TARIFF.

Senator Vance of North Carolina was one of the greatest men the South ever produced, and during his public life there was more than one movement among some manufacturers to go over to the Republicans upon the protection issue. In one of his last campaigns, when Senator Vance reached a county in which there were many cotton factories, he was approached by a Democratic county leader, who said in substance:

"We have a very close fight in our county this year. The cotton mill people, most of them, believe in protection but will vote with us on State issues. I have come to request you not to discuss the tariff question here today. It might drive off votes."

The great war Governor, who was always more noted for fortifier in re than for suaviter in modo, replied, substantially saying: "If most of your cotton mill people believe in protection, my duty is plain. I must speak on the tariff and give them the truth that will destroy the sophistry by which they have been deceived. I would not be true to my duty to them, to myself, or to the party if I were to dodge here where preaching the truth seems to be needed."

The local leader couldn't dissuade him from his purpose. He told his friends: "Governor Vance will not listen to reason and we will lose the county. He is determined to speak on the tariff." When the speech began, there were not a few among the party leaders who were depressed. All the cotton mill owners and employers, disaffected on the tariff, were out. The Governor plunged at once into his subject. He told his audience that news had reached him that some of them were inclined to favor protection—the doctrine of the robber barons—"that he may take who has the power, and he may keep who can"—and he proceeded to make the greatest tariff speech in North Carolina. He carried his hearers with him, too, as well as farmers and business and professional men. Before he finished he had them laughing as he recited "Mary Had a Little Lamb" with variations, showing how protection robbed, applauding his declarations for equality of opportunity and no taxation for private benefit.

Later Governor Vance finished that poem and read it in the Senate. It was received with shouts of laughter, even Republican Senators leaning back in their seats and giving unrestrained sway to their mirth. Here is the poem:

"Our Mary had a little lamb,
Her heart was most intent,
To make its wool beyond its worth,
Bring 56 per cent.

"A pauper girl across the sea
Had one small lamb also,
Whose wool for less than half that sum
She'd willingly let go.

"Another girl who had no sheep,
No stockings—wool not flax—
But money enough just for to buy
A pair without the tax

"Went to the pauper girl to get
Some wool to shield her feet,
And make her stockings, not of flax,
But out of wool complete.

"When Mary saw the girl's design
She straight began to swear
She'd make her buy both wool and tax
Or let one leg go bare.

"And so she cried: 'Protect, Reform!
Let pauper wool be free!
If it will keep her legs both warm
What will encourage me?"

"So it was done, and people said
Where'er that poor girl went,
One leg was warm with wool and one
With 56 per cent.

"Now praise to Mary and her lamb,
Who did the scheme invent,
To clothe one-half a girl in wool
And one-half in per cent.

"All honor, too, to Mary's friend,
And all protective acts,
That clothe the rich in real wool
And wrap the poor in tax."

Married life would be happier if people just beginning it would, in many cases, be more considerate of each other. Sometimes the young wife commences with being a domestic tyrant, and while at first the tyranny may be good humoredly borne it soon becomes distasteful and unpleasantness follows. And sometimes the young husband is in fault in being too "lordly" and in interfering with the legitimate sphere of the wife's domestic life. Loving co-operation and consideration will prevent friction and make for happiness.

THE GEORGIA CONVICT LEASE SYSTEM ENDED

THURSDAY THE STATE TOOK CHARGE OF PRISONERS.

Hereafter Instead of Leasing Her Convicts Georgia Will Work Them on Public Roads.

ATLANTA, April 2.—At sunrise yesterday Georgia shook off the last rag of her convict lease system. From one end of the State to the other, hundreds of human beings were led from the cavernous depths of mines, from the sweaty heat of chinking kilns, from the whirling, dank atmosphere of factories—out into God's sunlight, from the control of harsh and often brutal task-masters into the service of the State.

Georgia has no State penitentiary. For years her convicts have been sold into the mines, into the brick kilns, into the factories, where private greed sometimes demanded and collected its last ounce of human flesh and its final drop of human blood. But the State decided to abolish this traffic in white as well as black slaves, so instead of selling its 1,600 prisoners it will work them on the public roads.

The change went into effect at daylight yesterday morning, when the convicts were returned to the counties in which their crimes had been committed. Most of the unfortunates are blacks of a low order of intelligence, sentenced for every conceivable crime.

Though shackled and ironed, the convicts greeted the change with shouts of joy and weird hymns of thanksgiving.

Negro preachers were at most of the stockades and led the blacks in their impromptu praise service. Special trains were waiting and the prisoners were transferred as rapidly as possible to their new quarters.

Strangely enough, some of the convicts cried at leaving scenes which had been part of the daily life of some of them for many years.

The new system, it is believed, will not only improve the health of the convicts, but will assure Georgia the finest turnpikes in the South.

A bill has recently been introduced in Congress reducing representation of States alleged to deny negro citizens the right of franchise, but it is not seriously considered. Without trial, the bill arbitrarily specifies the reductions to be made, giving Alabama five, instead of nine representatives; Arkansas five, instead of seven; Florida two, instead of three; Georgia six, instead of eleven; Louisiana four, instead of seven; Mississippi three, instead of eight; North Carolina seven, instead of ten; Texas thirteen, instead of sixteen; Virginia seven, instead of ten; South Carolina three, instead of seven.

Governor Gilchrist is to be commended for his action in having Judge Palmer convene a special term of court at Tallahassee for the trial of the Negro who murdered Leon county's worthy sheriff.

ISLAND GROVE SCHOOL.

Closing Exercises Among Most Successful in School's History.

ISLAND GROVE, April 2.—The Island Grove high school enjoyed one of the most successful series of closing exercises in its history on Friday and Saturday, March 26 and 27. For a month the able teachers of the school have been preparing for the close, and the way in which the people received the various numbers of the entire program attested the success of their efforts.

A big picnic dinner was enjoyed on the school grounds Friday, and the afternoon was given over to speaking. Messrs. Whistler, Thompson and Shaw delivered short addresses to a most attentive audience.

Dr. Carroll, pastor of the First Baptist church at Ocala, gave a most interesting and instructive lecture Friday evening on "The Three Great Singers of the South," viz: Poe, Father Ryan and Lanier.

The entertainment Saturday evening was a notable success. Several drills were executed very skillfully, and the participants showed careful training. Short, spicy dialogues were heartily received and a mock marriage brought the audience to its feet. Mr. Willie Evans suddenly appeared on the stage in the costume of a negro, being soon followed by Messrs. Boulware and Shaw, representing the negro bride and groom, respectively. The "parson" read the ceremony of big, high-sounding words and the crowd went wild with laughter.

The high school has been under the direction of Principal W. F. King during the session just closed. Prof. King was ably assisted by Miss Reinohl of Starke, and Miss Curr of Columbia, S. C. The reports show much advancement in the students, and all the patrons seemed pleased with the results.

News Notes.

Rains have been numerous in this section for several weeks. The planters have not suffered for showers this spring. It is claimed by some that the water-fall thus far in 1909 has been greater than that of the entire year of 1908.

The crops of various kinds are growing rapidly and the prospects are getting brighter as the shipping season draws near. The acreage in almost every line is larger this year than usual.

Several of the high school students left Sunday for Dade City, where they will take up normal courses. Messrs. Osgood Howard and Will Carlton and Misses Maggie Cassels and Emma Warden were among the number who will prepare to teach. Miss Sallie Randall also departed Sunday for Starke, where she will continue her studies for two months.

Miss Vera Curr, one of the assistants in the high school, left Sunday morning on the early train for Columbia, S. C.

Miss Elsie Reinohl, one of the teachers during the last term of school, went to Belleview Monday on a visit. She will go to her home at Starke in a few days.

W. J. Crosby and family of Citra attended the closing exercises of the high school Friday and Saturday.

LONE STAR TAKES OLD GLORY'S PLACE

Last of the United States Troops Have Left Cuba.
No Cheers Upon Departure.

HAVANA, April 1.—The last emblem of American domination over Cuba disappeared at noon yesterday when the garrison flag at Camp Columbia fluttered down the pole and was replaced a moment later by the lone star, red banner of the Cuban republic. The ceremony attending the transfer of authority took place in the presence of the American garrison of Camp Columbia.

At the direction of Major-General Thomas H. Barry, commanding Lieutenant Bayard Sneed, of the Twenty-seventh Infantry, advanced to the flagstaff and hauled down the colors. The troops presented arms and the Cuban and American bands played the "Star Spangled Banner." A Cuban lieutenant then raised the Cuban colors and the troops again saluted. The transfer of the camp being thus completed the Cuban troops lined the roadside and presented arms, while the Americans, numbering about 800, in heavy marching order swung past, proceeding to the transport Sumner and McClellan.

The passage of the troops through the city did not attract the least attention and not more than a dozen visitors at the arsenal witnessed the embarkation.

The transport Sumner, under command of Col. William L. Pitcher, has a total passenger list numbering 837. The McClellan, under the command of Lieut. Col. Millard F. Waltz, has a total of 231 passengers, which includes a company of engineers, officers and their families and the civil employees of the army. All the animals have been shipped aboard the chartered steamer Progresso, which will proceed for Tampa.

The troops remained on board last night, the transports sailing for Newport News at 10 o'clock today. Maj. Gen. Barry bid his men farewell and then, accompanied by his aide, went aboard the Tampa steamer Mascotte, leaving not a signal representative of the American army on Cuban soil.

The Cuban troops entered into the possession of the quarters of the American officers and men immediately they were vacated, all the buildings having been cleaned and placed in perfect order before the departure of the Americans. The camp will now become the headquarters of the new Cuban army and the name will probably be changed.

Maj. Gen. Barry was given a farewell banquet last night at Hotel Miramar by Gen. Armando Rivas, the acting commander-in-chief of the Cuban army.

Fierce Fight With Flames in Federal Military Prison

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., April 1.—It took 1,200 United States soldiers to maintain order and prevent prisoners from escaping during a fire which destroyed four buildings of the Federal military prison here early today.

All of the 800 prisoners were marched out of their cell houses when it seemed that the whole prison certainly would be destroyed, and were held under heavy military guard until the fire was under control. Then, after some of the cell houses had cooled sufficiently, they were marched back again.

The fire was discovered before midnight by a sentry, who fired his pistol. The fire call was sounded and the entire garrison at Fort Leavenworth turned out. The Thirteenth Infantry, armed with rifles, was thrown around the entire prison. The fire, which probably started in the prison tailor shop, gained rapid headway against the prison guard, working with buckets and a small hose. The fire department of Leavenworth answered an emergency call and joined forces with the soldiers in a battle against the flames.

The fire was confined to the central row of buildings, and consumed the industrial department of the prison, including a paint shop, tailor shop, carpenter shop and laundry. The buildings contained many combustibles, and the flames threatened other buildings. The cell houses rapidly became filled with smoke and got suffocatingly hot.

When the fire started there was glee among the prisoners. "Let it burn," they yelled. The water pressure was poor, and as the water spluttered uselessly from the hose, the prisoners laughed and cheered. As the flames neared the cell houses the tone of the prisoners changed, and they screamed "For God's sake take us away," and were battering against the steel bars in terror.

The prisoners were marched from the cell house and held together under guard in a far corner of the enclosure. The new military prison is under construction, and it is not probable the burned buildings will be rebuilt. Maj. Slaven assigns defective wiring as the cause, and places the loss at $65,000. The burned buildings were erected in 1857 and 1858.

Women Suffer

much needless pain when they delay using Cardui for their female troubles. Cardui has been found to relieve headache, backache, pain in the side and dizziness arising from deranged organs. It does more than relieve,—if used persistently,—many have written to say that it cured them.

TAKE CARDUI
It Will Help You

Mrs. Maxwell Johnson, Tampa, Fla., writes: "Cardui cured me after doctors and everything else had failed. I had been suffering with numb spells ever since I was 16 years old. One day I decided to take Cardui. I have now taken 5 bottles and I can say that it has cured me. I advise all suffering women to give Cardui a long and fair trial."

Mrs. Johnson suffered years. Have you? Do you wish to? But why suffer at all? Take Cardui. Give it a fair trial.

MELON APHIS AND OTHER PLANT LICE

By E. W. BERGER

—Florida Agricultural Experiment Station—

The common cotton or melon aphis (Aphis gossypii), plantlouse, or green fly, has been reported as feeding upon more than thirty different species of plants. All but two or three of this number either grow wild or are cultivated in Florida. The following list of food plants contains those most commonly found: melons, cucumbers (and other plants of the same family), cotton, okra, mallows, citrus, bush bean, pear, clover, strawberry, careless weed, wormseed, morning glory, spinach, begonia and Jamestown weed.

Insecticides Recommended.

A good grade of tobacco dust applied dry by hand or by a powder bellows or blower, while the plants are moist with dew or rain, or applied as a decoction in water, is regarded by many in Florida as the best direct remedy for all kinds of aphids. When applied by hand the dust should be thrown so that it will strike forcibly the parts of the plants where the aphids live. In the case of cucumbers and similar crops it is quite important and yet difficult to get much of the dust to lodge on the under side of the leaves, yet after some practice this can be accomplished in a measure by giving the dust a strong throw sideways. Tobacco decoction is made by boiling one pound of tobacco leaves, stems or dust in three gallons of water. It can be used stronger if necessary. The liquid extracts of tobacco on the market are also useful against plantlice and other soft-bodied insects. When used dry, the finer the dust the more efficient it will be: it will adhere better when fine, and is more likely to lodge in the breathing pores and other vulnerable parts of the insect than a coarse dust. One should purchase a good grade of tobacco dust, preferably some standard brand. Cheap tobacco dust is likely to be useless, having been leached or adulterated.

Kerosene emulsion is regarded by some as the standard remedy for plant lice. Dissolve ½ lb. of soap in a gallon of water, and when boiling hot add two gallons of kerosene (away from the fire), and stir or otherwise agitate violently for ten to fifteen minutes. For use against plantlice dilute this with 15 to 20 parts of water.

Whale-oil soap, one pound to 6 gallons of water, is stated to kill readily, and is frequently employed as a spray against plantlice. If the kerosene or whale-oil soap injures the leaves add more water. Other soaps and soap powders have been used with good effects.

For spraying such flat-lying plants as melons and cucumbers, a short extension rod with the nozzle on the upturned end of an elbow is necessary in order to spray the under surface of the leaves where the aphids principally live. Some have found it more effective to have one person lift the vines while another did the spraying, than to use the upturned nozzle. Again, the vines could be turned over on the ground and sprayed, and turned back again when finished. The last two methods are not especially adapted for extensive work, but will be found useful in the home garden.

Useful Precautions.

When we know which plants are subject to infestation by aphids we may save ourselves trouble and disappointment in regard to the rotation and location of certain crops. It is evident for instance, that it may be unwise practice to plant cucumbers, melons, cantaloupes, or other crops likely to become infested by Aphis gossypii, near citrus trees. These latter may be harboring some of these aphids, and the result might be a rapid infestation of the crop.

Aphids live over on wild plants from season to season; it is, therefore, evident that much may be accomplished by a thorough cleaning up and burning-over of the ground immediately adjoining the field which is to be occupied by a crop subject to attack. While such a procedure might not altogether prevent the infestation, it would greatly delay it and reduce it in amount. The vegetation on the ground to be planted should be carefully plowed under, and any green stuff left uncovered should be removed and buried or burnt, to insure the destruction of all aphids.

Timely Preparation.

When plants begin to show the effects of an attack of aphids, it is usually too late for remedial measures to be effective. It is, therefore, important that crops known to be subject to serious injury should be regularly inspected at intervals of a few days, and the first observed presence of aphids should be the signal for an insecticide campaign. The grower should have everything ready to act at once, since one week's delay, or even less, spent in getting the necessary insecticides and machines, may mean the loss of a crop.

SPEEDY TRIAL SURE FOR NEGRO MURDERER

GOVERNOR GILCHRIST ISSUES A SPECIAL PROCLAMATION.

Had Heard Some Talk of Lynching and Appeals to Law-Abiding Citizens.

TALLAHASSEE, April 1.—The following proclamation was issued yesterday morning by Gov. Gilchrist from the executive office:

"In the discharge of his duty Mr. W. M. Langston, sheriff of Leon county, was, on March 19, killed from the effect of a gunshot wound. The negro, Mick Morris, charged with the murder, was arrested in Georgia, March 29, and is now in jail.

"Judge B. H. Palmer, judge of the Third judicial district, has been directed to convene a special term of the circuit court, in and for Leon county, commencing at 10 o'clock a. m., Monday, April 5, for the purpose of trying the said Mick Morris.

"There has been some talk of lynching. All law-abiding citizens will at once recognize the disgrace, if any such course were pursued. The said Mick Morris will be given a prompt, fair and impartial trial. As a prisoner he will be protected. He could not be lynched without the loss of the lives of good, though misguided citizens. Should anyone, through misguided zeal, bring discredit upon the laws of the State, the judiciary and the chief executive, and disgrace upon the county of Leon, and the capital city, they will be punished to the utmost. As a preventive of such, I therefore call upon all law-abiding citizens to assist the sheriff in the execution of the law, and in preventing any unlawful acts.

"In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the State to be affixed at Tallahassee, the capital, this the thirteenth day of March, A. D. 1909.

"ALBERT W. GILCHRIST.

"By the Governor, attest:

"H. CLAY CRAWFORD,

"Secretary of State."

MRS. BOYLE HELD FOR ACTION OF GRAND JURY

MERCER, Pa., April 1.—Mrs. Helen Boyle, wife of James H. Boyle, kidnapper of Willie Whittle, was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Thomas McClain at this place yesterday, charged with kidnapping.

She entered a plea of "not guilty" and was held for the action of the grand jury in the sum of $25,000.

Her husband waived a hearing at Sharon Monday and is held in the jail here on a similar bond.

Names Cause Confusion.

Robt. N. Owens, who has for many years been engaged here in different vocations, but principally in the dairy business, desires that his friends all remember the fact that he is not the man who has been sentenced to hang, neither is he in anyway related to that party. There is some similarity in the initials and this, he claims, has caused his many friends to think it was he that was in trouble.

W. C. MOORE TO BUILD ON JEFFORDS CORNER

RUMORED THAT MAGNIFICENT BUILDING WILL BE ERECTED.

Came into Possession by Chance and Will Improve it Within the Near Future.

It is rumored that W. C. Moore intends to erect a fine business block on the old Jeffords lot, located on the corner of the Government building site.

The information was secured from a gentleman who has been in correspondence with Mr. Moore, but he did not state the exact time that he would commence the operations.

It was stated that he would erect a building there suitable for office purposes for the top floor and have store rooms on the lower part with large glass fronts, the corner having a view from the two streets the same as the Hill building.

Mr. Moore, who is a son-in-law of the late Mr. Jeffords, came into possession of this valuable property long before the latter's death, but the transfer to him has been only recently made, which further indicates that he will make these improvements.

MUST SERVE TERMS ON PEONAGE CHARGE

NEW ORLEANS, La., April 1.—The United States Circuit Court of Appeals has denied a re-hearing in the case of the Government against W. S. Harlan and Robert Gallagher, who were convicted and given a heavy sentence in the Federal court for the Northern District of Florida on the charge of practicing peonage.

The Appellate Court sustained this verdict and now refuses to alter its judgment.

HEAVIER RAIL FROM GAINESVILLE SOUTH

SEVENTY-POUND STEEL RAIL TO REPLACE THAT NOW IN USE.

Preparations Have Been Under Way for Sometime for This Much-needed Improvement.

The Atlantic Coast Line have completed arrangements to relay their track from Gainesville south and will commence work on this improvement within the next few days.

Material is already arriving for the proposed changes and it is rumored that work will commence next week and continue until they connect with the West Coast line near Brooksville.

The rail that has been in use along the Florida Southern branch of this system was considered too light for the service it was performing and the officials have ordered that seventy-pound steel rail be placed on this division.

Just what the Coast Line intend doing by increasing this rail is not known, but appearances indicate that they intend either running more trains or expect to have considerable heavy hauling along this route.

It will probably be the means of having some of the extra large and heavy trains run via this city instead of going via the West Coast as has been the custom for the past several years, and it is known that when a rush was on in moving trains to Tampa they were run over the West Coast principally upon this ground, the rail here being too light for the extra large engines.

WINDSOR SCHOOL EXERCISES.

An Extra Month Has Been Granted.

Recitation, "On the Gate"—Madge Thomas.

Music.

The pleasant affair ended with a social fifteen minutes.

The school, however, does not close at once, as our worthy superintendent, Dr. J. L. Kelley, has granted an extra month, for which we are very grateful.

Mrs. W. H. Latimer continues as teacher.

KIRBY SMITH CHAPTER.

Delegates Elected to U. D. C. Convention at St. Augustine.

At the regular business meeting of Kirby Smith Chapter, U. D. C., held at the home of the President Thursday afternoon, the following delegates were elected to the State convention soon to convene at St. Augustine: Mrs. H. H. McCreary, president; Mrs. L. W. Jackson, chairman; Mrs. Joe Manasse, Mrs. A. W. Taylor and Mrs. J. J. Williams; alternates, Mrs. J. B. Brooks, Mrs. A. L. Jackson, Mrs. J. M. Graham and Mrs. Evans Haile.

As the committee which had charge of the memorial arrangements incident to the death of Mrs. J. E. Wainwright had made a mistake in the date, the first Thursday occurring on the first day of the month instead of during the second week, as is usually the case, and the Missionary Society of the First Baptist church having been invited to join with the chapter in this service, it was decided to hold a special memorial service one evening after the meeting now in progress at the Baptist church has adjourned to pay respect to the chapter's ex-president.

The credential committee reported four credentials approved and ready to be forwarded to the State Registrar, besides several others that they hope to have in before the convention. Mrs. W. B. Durst's name was presented for membership and the necessary papers furnished her.

The amendment to be offered at the convention was then discussed by the chapter and the delegates instructed to use their judgment in the matter after reaching the convention.

The committee on arrangements for the play entitled "The Union Depot," to be given by Miss Elizabeth Melick assisted by the chapter for the benefit of the Kirby Smith scholarship in the University of Florida for the coming year, reported the play well under way, as well as Ticket Agent Goodwin and other business men, have promised to take part. The doll baby, Indian, and cowboy drills will be a prominent feature of the evening's program.

The chapter was delighted to have with them Mrs. Judge Cox of Palatka, a prominent daughter of Patton Anderson Chapter, and Mrs. Glass of this city. It is a pleasure to the chapter to have guests at all times, but especially to have visiting Daughters with them when they are in the city.
